Wedding Packages Continued

Each wedding that is held at our property must use our wedding coordinator. The wedding coordinators services include meeting with the couple to look at the space, offer insight and best practices for ceremonies and receptions at our property and answer any questions in regards to the facility. The wedding coordinator is not a wedding planner but more simply the specialist at Calvary to facilitate a wonderful event!

Premarital Counseling

Calvary strongly believes in the benefit for the future of marital relationships that we require premarital counseling for each couple wishing to use our facilities and help with the cost involved when using our preferred counselors.

Melanie Harding and Sharon Schott are closely associated with Calvary and are Christian counselors. Calvary will provide (4) one-hour sessions to each couple. Any additional counseling sessions will be paid for by the couple.
