

Still Lacking - Life Group Questions

1. If you had to honestly assess your life for what is lacking, what would your answer be? Why?
2. Pastor Dan said that Jesus is looking for followers not fans. What are some of the key differences between the two?
3. Going by your answers to the last question where are you a follower and where are you a fan?
4. What have you done in the last 20 weeks to carve out space for Jesus? What steps can you take tomorrow to create more space for Christ?
5. What would you say is the main thing that you need to surrender to Jesus?

FYM Questions:

1. Is there one specific thing that you feel is lacking within the context of your Front Yard Mission? (time, passion to pray, desire to get started, responses from neighbors, etc)
2. When we lack space for Jesus we will also lack space for our neighbors; when we make space for Jesus we will also be making space for our neighbors. Do you agree with that statement? Why or why not?
3. How will you engage with your Front Yard Mission this week?
