

Do It Again Lord - Life Group Questions

1. Pastor Dan opened with the story of Dee Duke's father pushing and pushing on the big ship and then, eventually, seeing it move. What is the big ship in your life that you keep pushing on in the hopes of seeing it move? How can we encourage you?
2. What are you working on, what goals do you have, that you know you absolutely cannot get done without God's gracious hand upon you? If you don't have one, what work might God be calling you to participate in?
3. Dan shared a quote from Henry Blackaby that said, "I've come to the place in my life that, if the assignment I sense God is giving me is something I can handle, I know it probably isn't from God." What are your thoughts on that quote? Do you agree or disagree? Why?
4. Talk about committing together to do the 52 Day devotional and discussing it with each other.

Front Yard Mission:

1. In the area of Front Yard Mission we talk about "pray first, love all, invite often." Which of these three do you think you are focusing on right now? What are the areas of excitement and/or anxiety when you consider moving into the next step?
2. Pastor Dan asked the question, "Will my lifestyle discredit my life-story?" Walking in integrity (not perfection) will be important for us as we seek to point our neighbors to Jesus. How can you be intentional to grow in alignment between your lifestyle and your life-story in Christ?
3. What's one thing you can do this week to engage in your FYM?
