

Not Just A Wall - Life Group Questions

1. Pastor Dan opened up by asking us to consider all of the glorious things that God sees in creation (galaxies, the brightest of stars, planets, comets, etc) and then to consider that you are, individually, one of His greatest treasures. How should that reality shape the way we see ourselves and others?
2. Dan also said that we are “God’s want to, not His have to.” Do you find God more often being your “have to” or your “want to?” Why do we get stuck in the “have to” category at times?
3. Would you classify yourself as more of a natural pioneer or settler? In order to step into what God is doing we’ll have to leave the “what is” to step into the “what’s next.” What aspects of the here and now will be difficult for you to leave behind (comfort, control, old ways of thinking about yourself or God, etc)?
4. Where might God be calling you to be a pioneer (family, work place, FYM)?
