

I Dare You - Life Group Questions

1. Pastor Dan opened his sermon with the story of Bruce and his wealthy friend Johnny. Johnny had given his life to being successful and in control of his own future and balked at the idea of giving up that control. Dan asked the question, "To what will I give my life?" How would you answer that question? How well are you giving your life toward your answer?
2. Dan mentioned that the Israelites were waking up to the absence of God's presence. Do you think that the Church is in need of this same type of awakening? Why or why not? What about in your personal relationship with Jesus?
3. Where our treasure is there our heart will be also. This means that if we treasure anything above God then He cannot have our hearts because our hearts will be elsewhere. What treasures are pulling your heart away from the Lord? How do we grow in treasuring God more?
4. If the heavens opened and your life was flooded by God's blessing how would it change your life?
