

What If He Says So? - Group Questions

1. What thoughts and feelings come into your heart and mind when you consider living a life that is fully submitted and surrendered to God? Are there some shades of excitement and joy? What about feelings of unrest, nervousness, or fear? What do you think leads to those feelings?
2. Pastor Dan shared the story of the missionary doctor who was challenged to cross out the "I" that had taken the chief position in her heart. Where does your "I" stand in relation to your heart? Is it still center stage? Are you still wrestling against your "I"? What might be your next step?
3. Would you say that you are more of an excited observer or a passionate follower? What are some reasons why you (or others) may choose to remain a fan rather than enter fully into the mission?
4. Pastor Dan said that it's not until you hear God's voice and lean in (respond) that you can fully enter into the life of the church (the body of Christ). Where are you resisting what you've heard? Where are you afraid to lean in?

Take some time to pray for one another (specifically around the answers to #4)

Front Yard Mission Questions:

1. How might you be intentional to more fully lean in to your Front Yard Mission?
2. Take a little time to imagine and dream. What impact might your fully surrendered life have on your neighborhood?
3. What one step will you take this week to love and serve your neighbors?
