

A What-If Hope - Group Questions

1. What thoughts and/or feelings go through your mind when you consider the statement that God sees you?
2. What does God see when he looks at your heart? How would you answer that question? What makes you think He is seeing what you think He's seeing?
3. Dan said that our culture celebrates doing more than being. Our busyness has become a mark of our greatness or importance. How well are you doing in creating time to be still with God? What will you do to intentionally create/maintain that space?
4. One of the closing remarks that Dan made was this: I have a life saving mission to my family, my neighbors, and the next generation. In what ways are you embracing that mission? How can you embrace it even more?

Front Yard Mission Questions:

1. Are there any opportunities to serve a neighbor during the upcoming serve week? Do you have any neighbors that you could invite to come along as you serve someone else?
2. As the weather warms up what are 1-2 opportunities that you will have to love and serve a neighbor?
