

Equipped For Breakthrough - Life Group Questions

1. Scott opened up with a story about his time in public school (middle school and high school). Can you share a funny story about your time in school?
2. Read 2 Peter 1:3-11. What do you think that it means to have everything we need for a godly life? What are some of the things that we've been given that come first to your mind?
3. At different time for different reasons we can struggle to believe that we truly have everything that we need to do what God is calling us to do. Share some times when you have struggled (or still do struggle) to believe that you have everything you need to live the life God is calling you to live.
4. How well do you find a balance between the gracious gifts of God and the call to make every effort in your personal growth? What do you see as some of the reasons as to why this balance can be hard to find?
5. Scott said that "making every effort" has to include some level of exclusivity, sacrifice, and time. Are there one of these three areas that you find most difficult to be disciplined in?
6. Where would you most want to see an increase of fruitfulness/impactfulness in your walk with Christ (marriage, kids, Front Yard Mission, personal relationship with Christ, devotional time, with co-workers, etc)?

Take some time at the end to pray for each other...specifically regarding answers to #3 and #7
