

What If God's Not Home - Group Questions

1. What do you see as some of the walls that are keeping people from encountering Jesus? How should we respond when we find those walls to be offensive? How can we make sure that those walls don't keep us from reaching out to them in love?
2. Pastor Dan made the point that fruitless fig trees are as helpful as prayerless temples and faithless prayers. How would you describe the prayer life of the Church? What about your own life?
3. If we want to be a people of prayer then we need to deal with whatever gets in the way of our prayer life. Unforgiveness is one of those things. Can you share a time when you have struggled to forgive? What impact did forgiveness have on your life? What about unforgiveness?
4. Why do you think unforgiveness can be such a subtle sin? What ways of thinking allow it to have space in our lives and our churches?

Front Yard Mission Questions:

1. Do you have any neighbors that you need to forgive for something that they have said or done? Do you have any neighbors who you need to ask to forgive you?
2. Are you planning on participating in Serve Week? If not, why not?
